Seventy-two years ago, the United Nations was founded “to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war ... [and] to practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors.” Despite those worthy aspirations, and generations of investment in achieving them, the “scourge of war” is still with us: Last year, more than 102,000 people died in 49 armed conflicts around the world. Some of those conflicts were in their fifth decade or beyond. Terrorism, intolerance, and extremism; the refugee crisis; and environmental degradation are now global challenges.

Collectively, we seem further than ever from achieving the goals that were set with such ambition and optimism in 1945. Yet hope endures, as long as there are people willing to work for a more peaceful future – not only through their governments, but also beside them and beside each other. Today, Rotary is better placed than ever to have a real and lasting impact for peace: through our peace-focused programs, such as Rotary Peace Fellows, and through every area of our service. Water, sanitation, health, education, and economic development are all interrelated and part of the complex interactions that can lead to conflict – or avert it. To best leverage our service in all these areas, and to maximize their impact for peace, it is essential to understand these interactions and plan our service accordingly.

For these reasons, we have scheduled a series of six presidential peacebuilding conferences between February and June in Canada, Lebanon, the UK, Australia, Italy, and the United States. These conferences will focus not on peace but on peacebuilding: We will share ways that we can work to build peace through the service of our Rotary clubs and districts. Five of the one-day conferences will illuminate the connections between peace and another area of focus. The first conference, in Vancouver, B.C., will explore the link between peace and another sphere of great concern to us in Rotary: environmental sustainability. You can view the full schedule and register at www.rotary.org/presidential-conferences.

The goals are simple: to help Rotarians find new ways to advance peace through their service, to learn from experts, and to strengthen our abilities to build peace. It is my hope and belief that these conferences will help us move closer to a more peaceful world, through Rotary: Making a Difference.

Dear Rotarians

December was a hectic month for us in the Midtown, there were plethora of events conducted throughout the month in all spheres of activity. We once again came together through "Connect Yourself" it was fun filled with emotions to see our friends share their unique experiences in our club.

Come December the frenzy of cricket engulfs our club, This year we had the privilege of conducting the biggest MPL with 9 teams and 126 players participating in the event. The budget for the event was also huge with more than Rs 14 lakhs mobilized for the event, I personally thank all the sponsors for their wonderful support. It is amazing to see many of our members irrespective of their age participate in the event with all vigor and enthusiasm. MPL was a huge crowd puller with more than 150 people attending the event on the first 2 days of the tournament and a record 600 people attending on final day evening. I thank all the Team Owners, Officials, Organizers and Players for their respective contributions in taking this event to next level.

On the service front we have renovated toilets in RCM girls high school for the well being of the girl children, we have distributed 309 pairs of shoes and 618 pairs of socks in B V Subba Reddy school. Half way down the Rotary year I have derived immense satisfaction in discharging my duties in this mighty club.

Hi guys,

December brings us fond memories of Christmas holidays in our childhood, the sweet aroma of cakes gifted by friends on this auspicious day. Come December Midtown wears a festive look in anticipation of our own Cricket festival MPL, Midtown Premier League has carved itself an indelible place in the hearts of Midtowners. MPL has become a very big platform in enhancing the pride n prestige of our club, MPL itself has attracted so many new members to our fold with its glamour n grandeur.

MPL 2017 was the biggest in all its avatars so far, it was a huge tourney with 9 Teams , 126 Players, Rs 14 lakhs budget and huge turnover of audience. It had all the glamour n grandeur of IPL, there was a Red hot auction for the players with Team owners and their advisors working overtime to select n secure a dominant team. All the Owners along with their Managers n Captains framing practice schedules for their teams. MPL had all the ingredients to make it a grand entertainer with so called formidable Teams not making into final rounds, relatively unknown Teams making into the final rounds, heroes failing, minnows shining and emergency of all together new set of heroes .

We in this editorial box were happy to garner so much of information to pass on to you. Midtown as usual has done its quota of service this month by renovating toilets in school for hygiene of girl children and distributed shoes n socks for other students.

Signing off for now

15th December, 2017 – Inauguration of Girls Toilets at RCM School and Distribution of Shoes at B V Subba Reddy Municipal Elementary School

On 15th December, we have Renovated and new Tiles were laid at RCM School Girl high school by spending more than Rs 50,000/- for 12 Toilet, inside walk through area and pathway etc., This renovation is promised by us during independence day celebrations and same service program is done by us.

On 15th December, we distributed 309 pairs of School Shoes and 618 pairs of Socks to the elementary school students in B V Subba Reddy Municipal Corporation Elementary School, Kandrika a worth of Rs 50,000.

This programme was initiated by PP Subba Rao (Datta), as he got a call from his Rotarian friend in USA who wants his Son's First Birthday to be celebrated helping poor school children who had contributed Rs 30,000.

As we observed, almost all the school students in this Elementary School were barefoot and there is a lot of scope to get infections and also cause major deceases. So, we decided to distribute Shoes to them under this program.

From the last 4 years Rotaract club of Vijayawada Midtown paying school fees to this student, who can't hear and speak. She is doing well in her studies.

this year also they paid the fee amount of Rs.6000 good work done by our Rotaracts

Top 10 Leadership Qualities That Make Good Leaders

10 Leadership Qualities That Make Great Leaders

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way." Irrespective of how you define a leader, he or she can prove to be a difference maker between success and failure. A good leader has a futuristic vision and knows how to turn his ideas into real-world success stories. In this article, we take an in-depth look at some of the important leadership qualities that separate good leaders from a bad one.

1. Honesty and Integrity

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way." Irrespective of how you define a leader, he or she can prove to be a difference maker between success and failure. A good leader has a futuristic vision and knows how to turn his ideas into real-world success stories. In this article, we take an in-depth look at some of the important leadership qualities that separate good leaders from a bad one. The 34th President of United States, Dwight.D.Eisenhower once said, "The supreme quality of leadership is unquestionably integrity. Without it, no real success is possible, no matter whether it is on a section gang, a football field, in an army, or in an office." Honesty and integrity are two important ingredients which make a good leader. How can you expect your followers to be honest when you lack these qualities yourself? Leaders succeed when they stick to their values and core beliefs and without ethics, this will not be possible.

2. Confidence

To be an effective leader, you should be confident enough to ensure that other follow your commands. If you are unsure about your own decisions and qualities, then your subordinates will never follow you. As a leader, you have to be oozing with confidence, show some swagger and assertiveness to gain the respect of your subordinates. This does not mean that you should be overconfident, but you should at least reflect the degree of confidence required to ensure that your followers trust you as a leader.

3. Inspire Others

Probably the most difficult job for a leader is to persuade others to follow. It can only be possible if you inspire your followers by setting a good example. When the going gets tough, they look up to you and see how you react to the situation. If you handle it well, they will follow you. As a leader, should think positive and this positive approach should be visible through your actions. Stay calm under pressure and keep the motivation level up. As John Quincy Adams puts it, "If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader." If you are successful in inspiring your subordinates, you can easily overcome any current and future challenge easily.

4. Commitment and Passion

Your teams look up to you and if you want them to give them their all, you will have to be passionate about it too. When your teammates see you getting your hands dirty, they will also give their best shot. It will also help you to gain the respect of your subordinates and infuse new energy in your team members, which helps them to perform better. If they feel that you are not fully committed or lacks passion, then it would be an uphill task for the leader to motivate your followers to achieve the goal.
